Who we are...

The Oakland Museum Women's Board (OMWB) is a non-profit organization. The White Elephant Sale (WES) is the fundraiser we hold every year to benefit the Oakland Museum of California (OMCA). We are the single largest private donor to the OMCA.

What we do...

We work year-round to prepare for the January Preview and White Elephant Sale in March. Volunteers sort, organize and price donated items to be sold in nearly twenty different departments.

What we require from our volunteers...

- We expect your support of our mission, to raise funds for the benefit of the Oakland Museum of California.
- We require a minimum commitment of:
 - 1-2 days a month, May - December (We are open 1 week a month, Tues.- Sat., 9am - 2pm)
 - 1 day a week during January, February and the first week of March.
 - 1 or more of the sale and clean up days.
- You will be given a temporary assignment to whatever department is most in need.
- You will also be encouraged to join the Oakland Museum of California.

YES, I have read and accept what is expected of me as a WES volunteer and would like to fill out an application.
